

THE REAL PROPERTY TAX COLLECTION STRATEGIES OF CALOOCAN CITY: BASIS

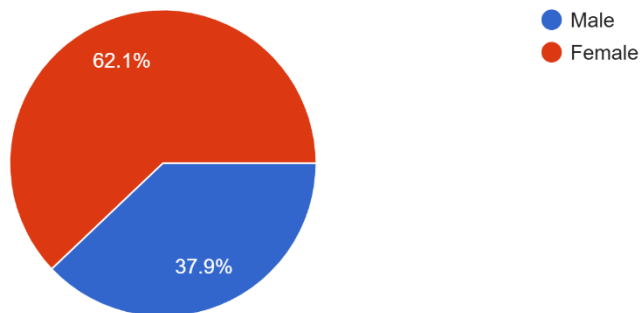

1. Age:

153 responses

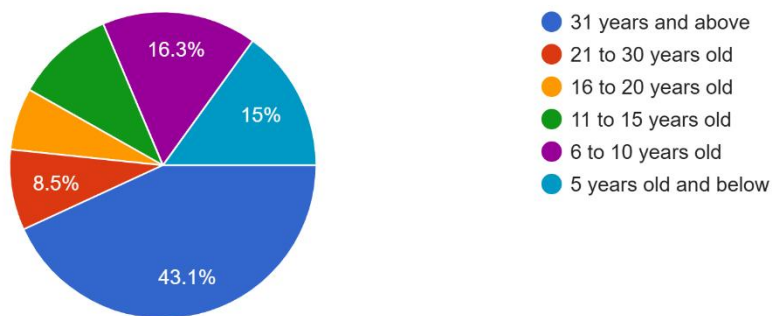

2. Gender:

153 responses

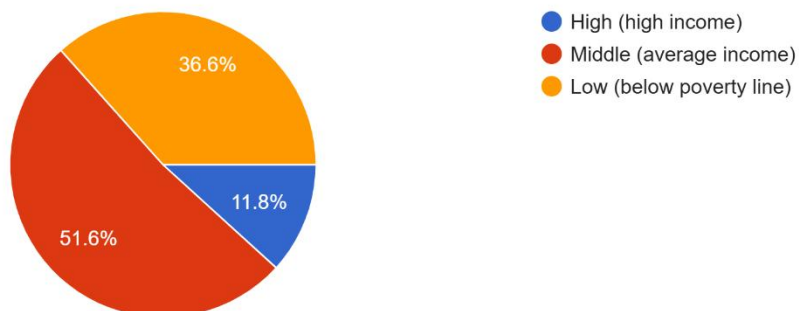

3. Length of Stay:

153 responses

4. Socio-Economic Status:

153 responses

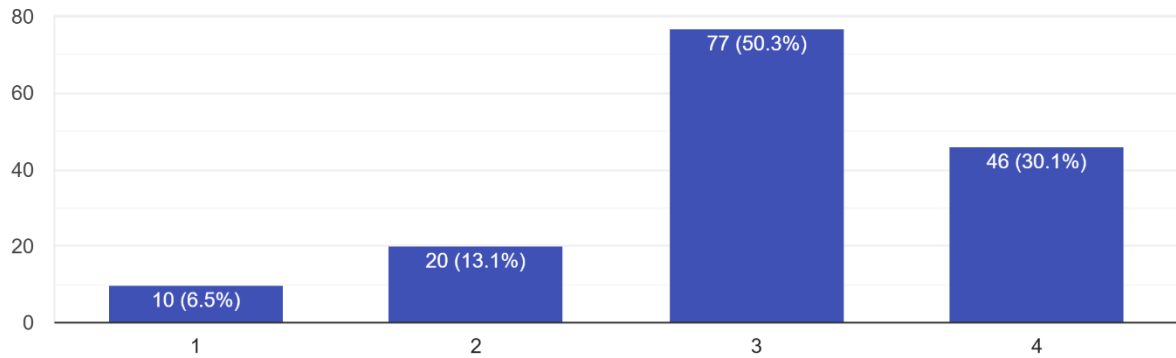

Part II: Assessment on Real Property Tax Collection Strategies in Caloocan City

1. Collection Rate

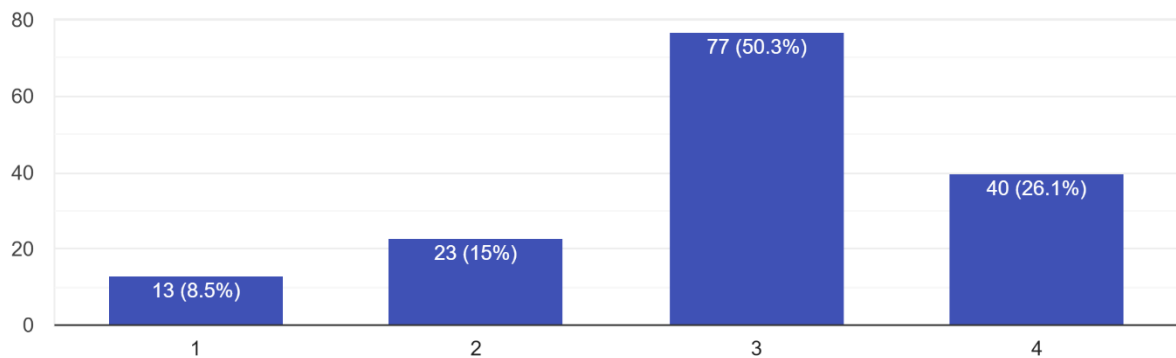

A. The city implements strategies that effectively measure the collection of real property taxes due.

153 responses

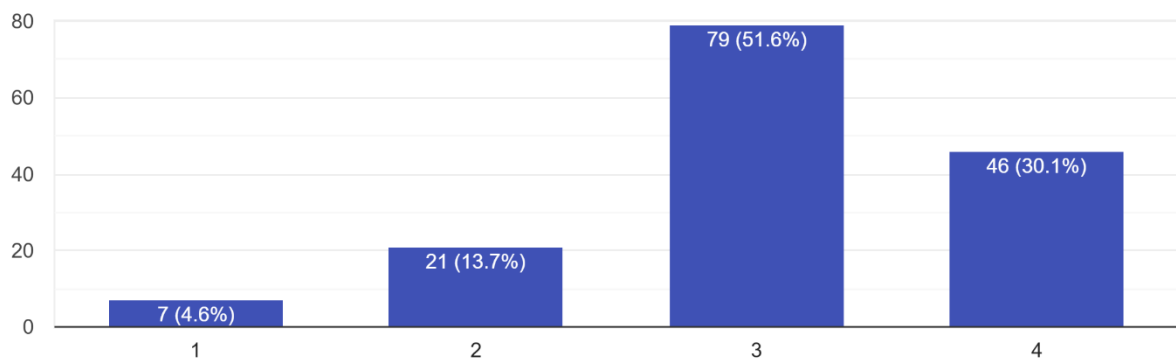

B. Existing strategies result in a high collection rate, indicating low tax leakage (evasion, fraud, or non-payment).

153 responses

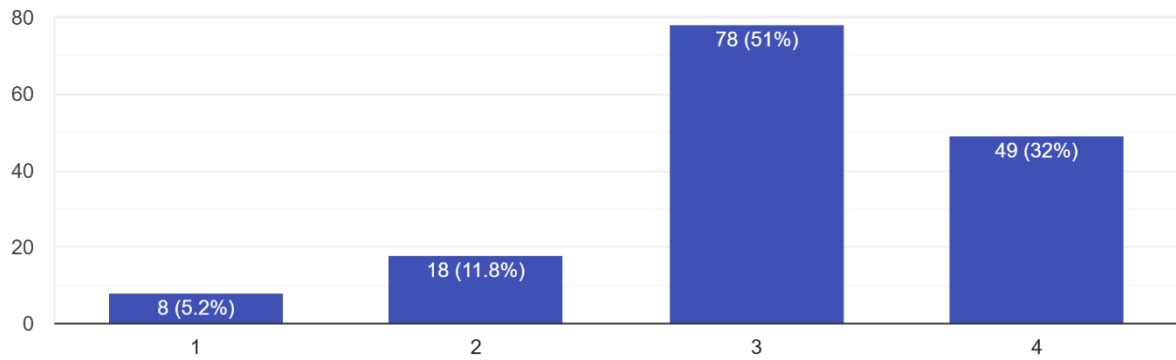

C. Having a strategies that efficiency is often linked to digital systems, audit mechanisms, and skilled personnel

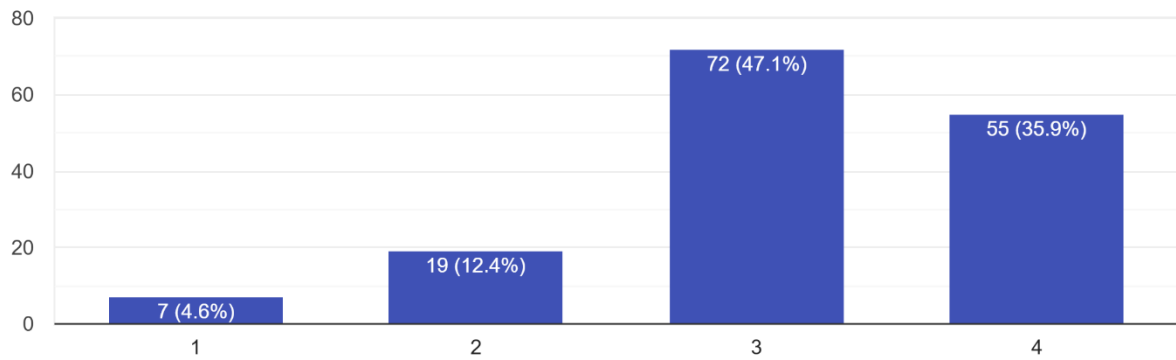

153 responses

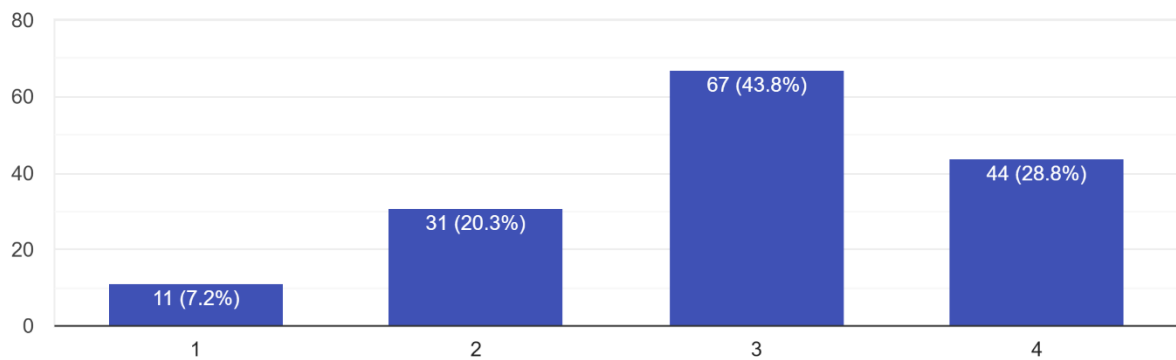

D. Having a strategies that reflects the extent to which taxpayers fulfill their obligations voluntarily
153 responses

E. Having a strategies that influenced by trust in government, simplicity of tax laws, and perceived fairness.
153 responses

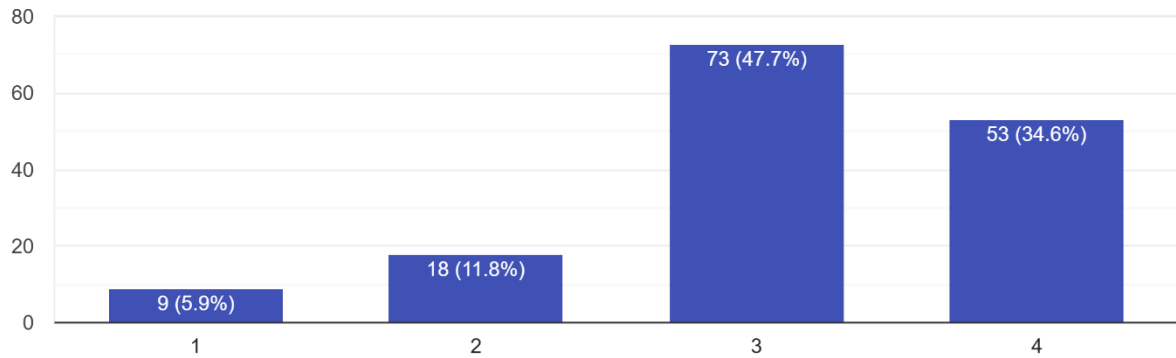

F. Having a strategies that result in frequent legal loopholes or political interference that may hurt the collection rate
153 responses

G. Having a fair tax system that encourages compliance and improves collection.

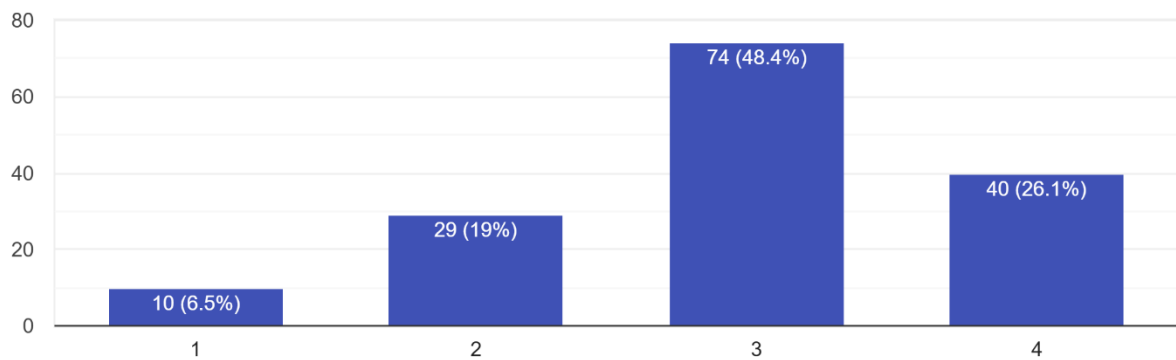

153 responses

2. Delinquency Duration

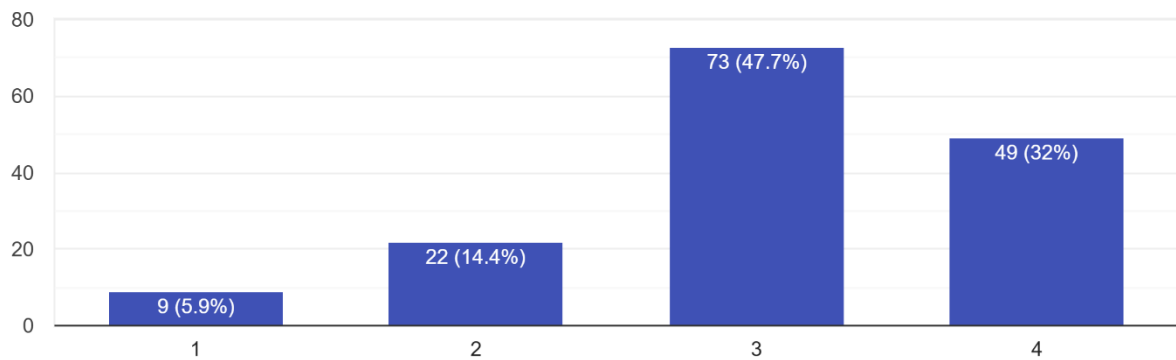

A. Having an automated reminders via SMS, email, or letters immediately after a missed deadline.

153 responses

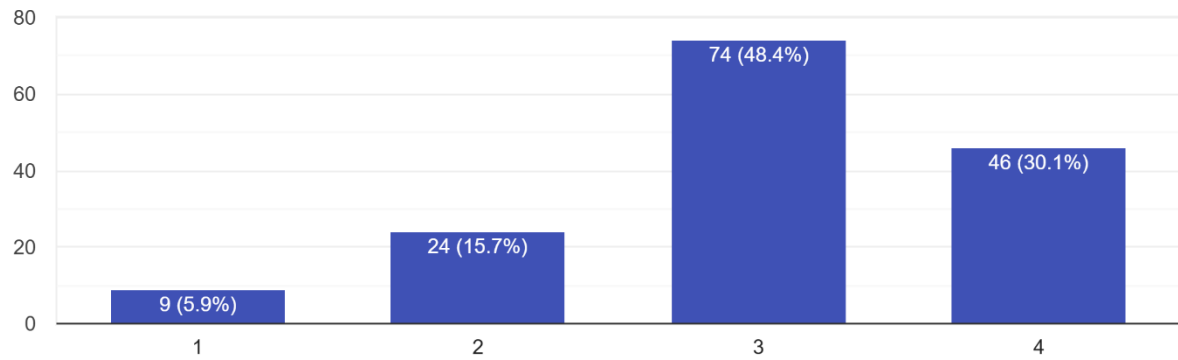

B. Giving grace periods with incentives (e.g. waive late penalties for quick resolution)

153 responses

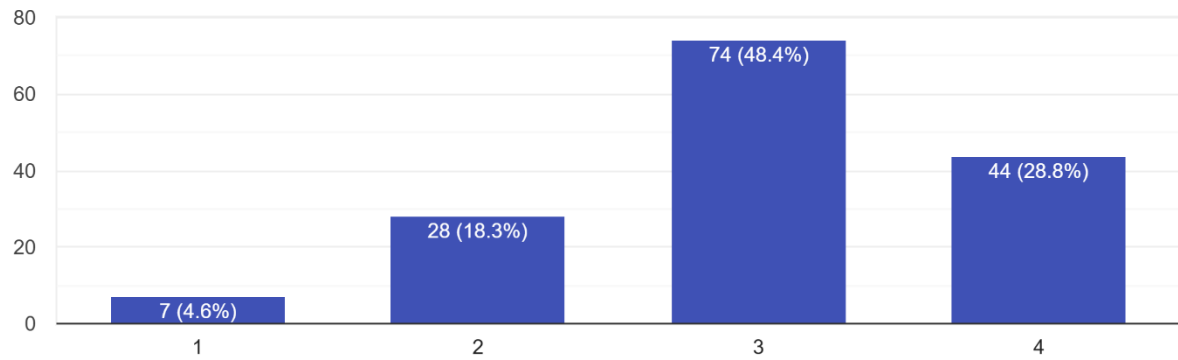

C. Issuing pre-delinquency notices warning taxpayers before deadlines approach.

153 responses

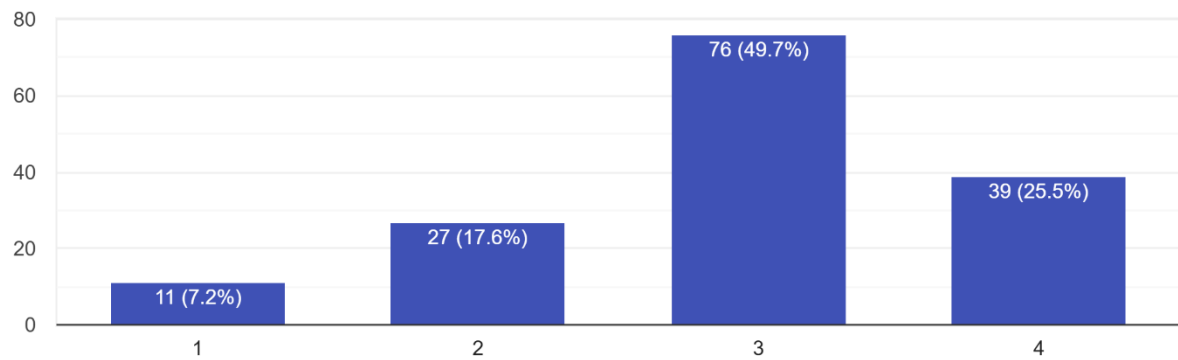

D. Provide letters addressed by name with specific debt information

153 responses

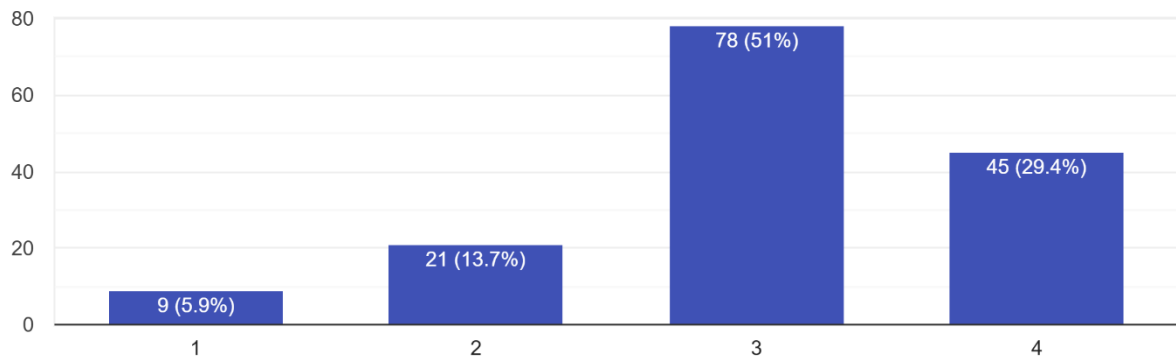

E. Discouraging delay by increasing the cost of non-compliance.

153 responses

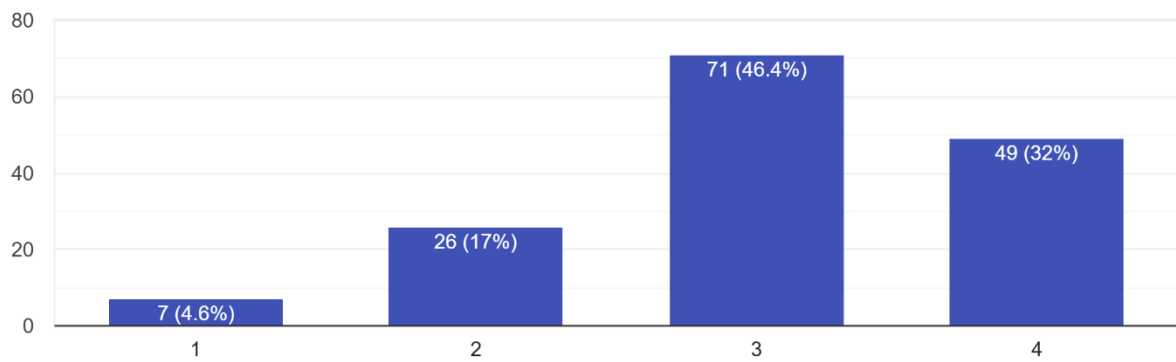

F. Campaigns on due dates, penalties, and the importance of compliance

153 responses

G. Having access to customer service for struggling taxpayers

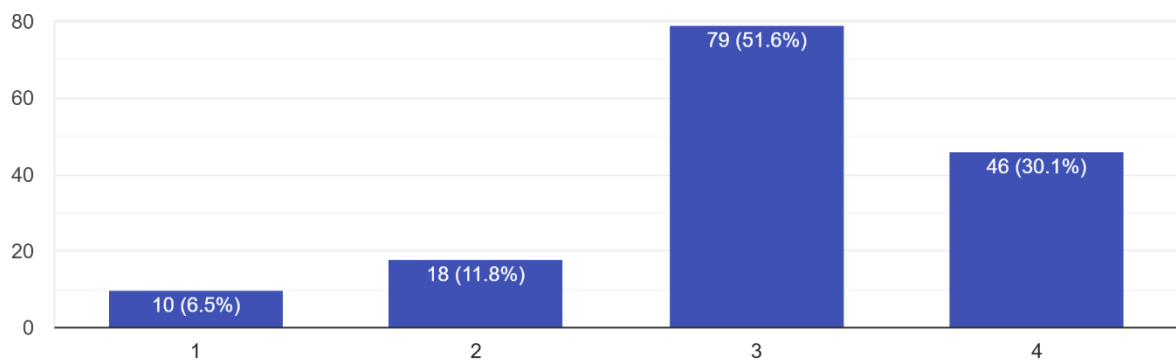

153 responses

3. Taxpayer Compliance Rate

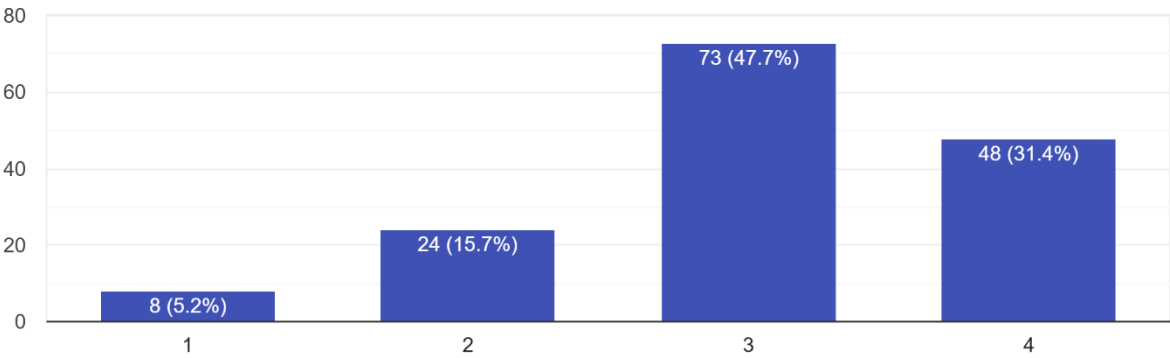

A. Having a clear, simple tax rules and fewer exemptions/deductions

153 responses

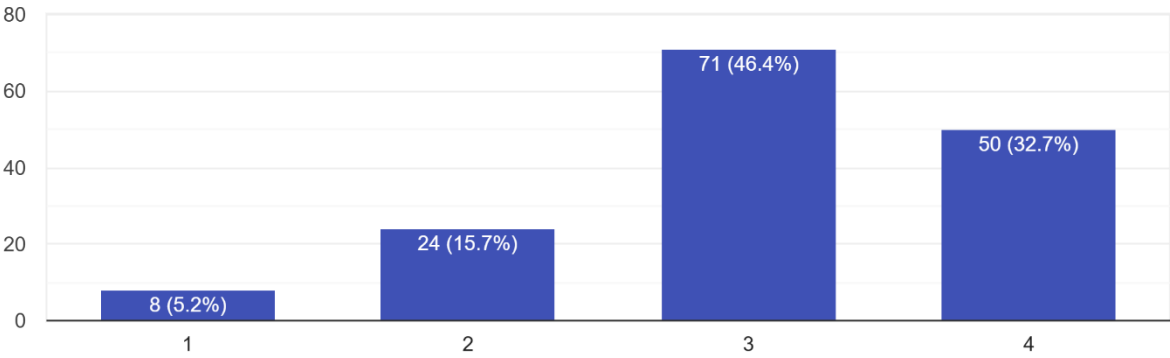

B. Providing a one-stop digital platforms for filing and payment

153 responses

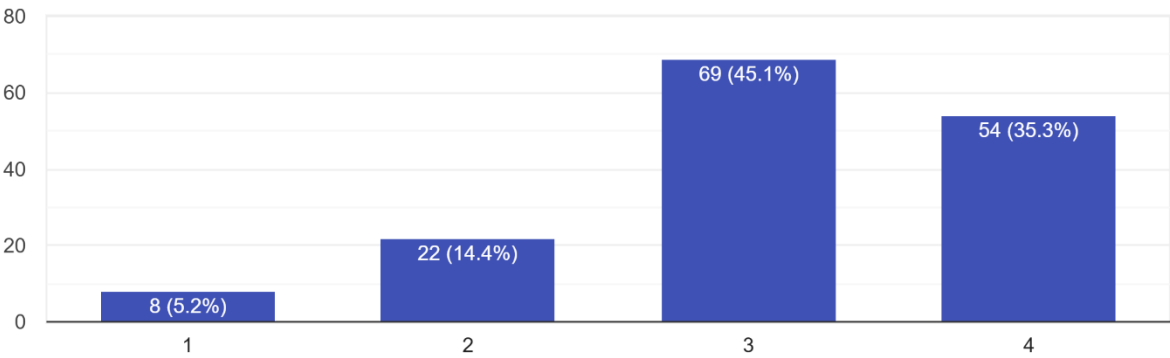

C. Conducting public awareness campaigns on rights, obligations, and deadlines

153 responses

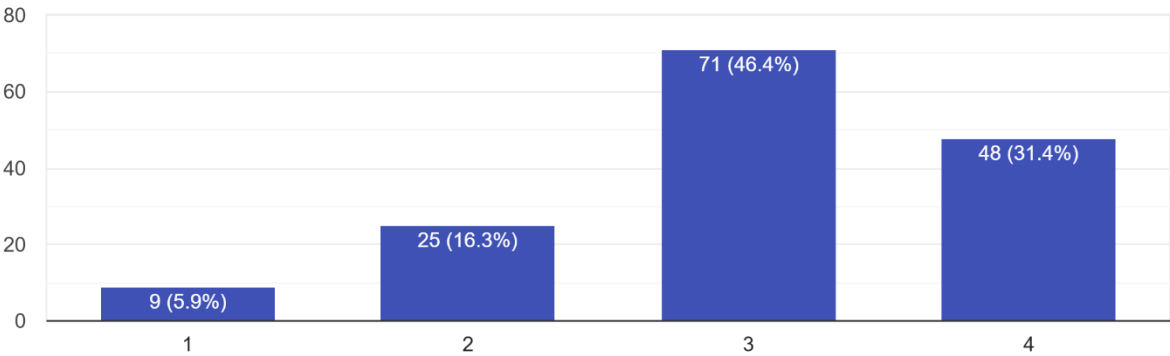

D. Establishing anti-corruption efforts to show accountability

153 responses

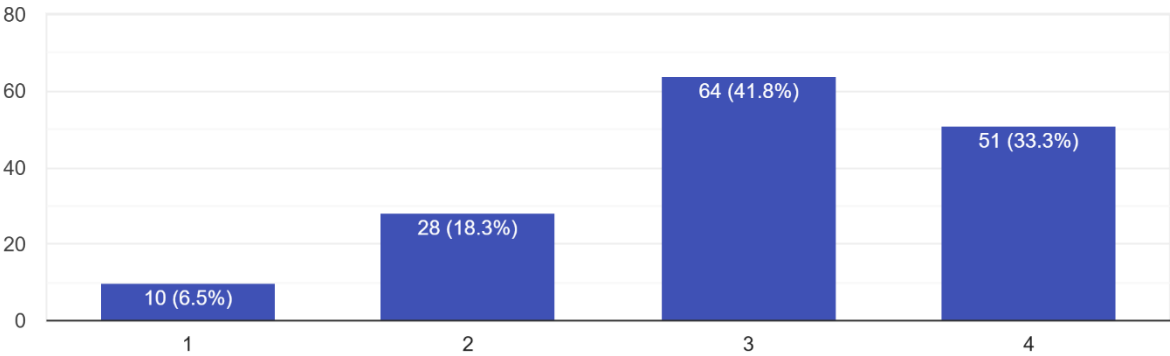

E. Giving taxpayer recognition programs (e.g., awards or public acknowledgment for compliant businesses).

153 responses

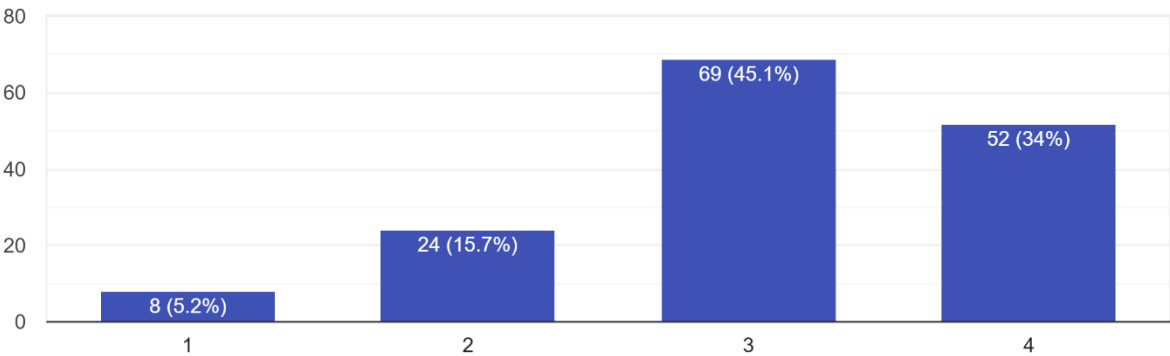

F. Initiative to prompt resolution of disputes or overpayments

153 responses

G. Having advance rulings and clear guidance for complex tax questions

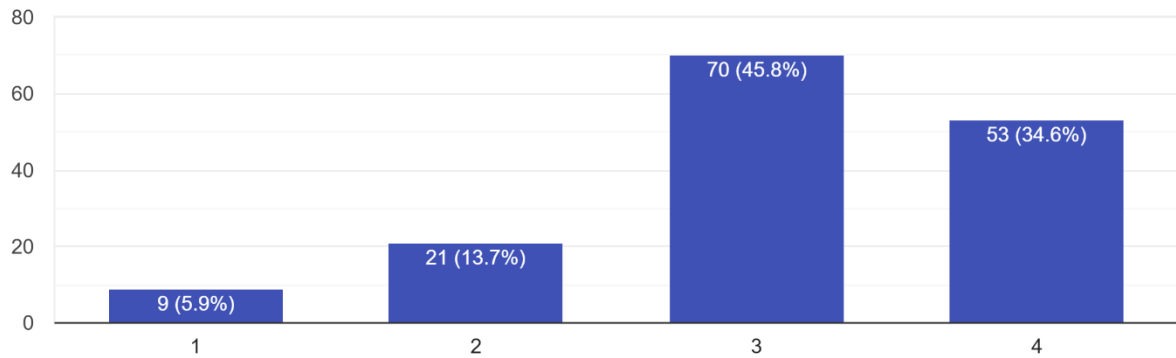

153 responses

4. Communication and Outreach Efforts

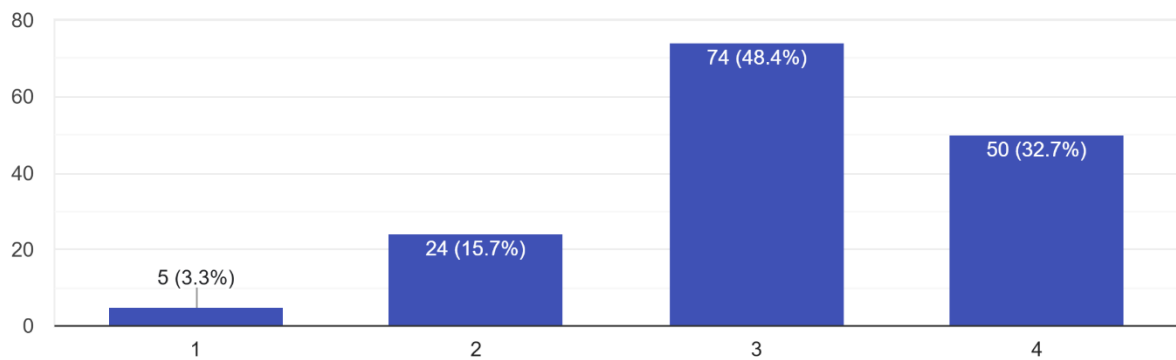

A. Conducting Public Awareness Campaigns to inform taxpayers of their obligations, deadlines, and rights

153 responses

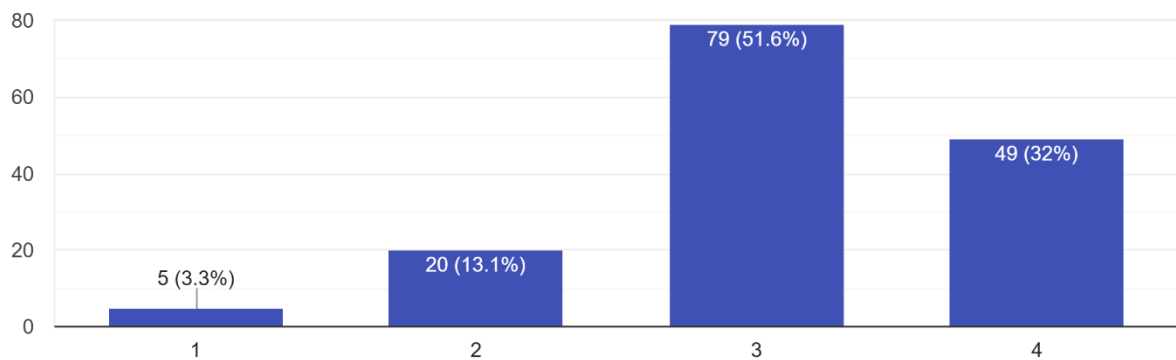

B. Foster two-way communication with key groups by Involving local influencers or respected figures to enhance credibility.

153 responses

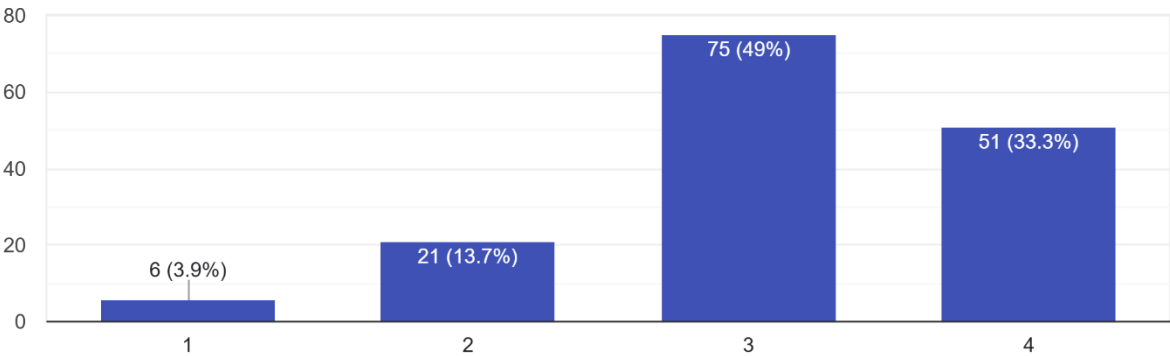

C. Building knowledge and long-term compliance habits on taxpayers

153 responses

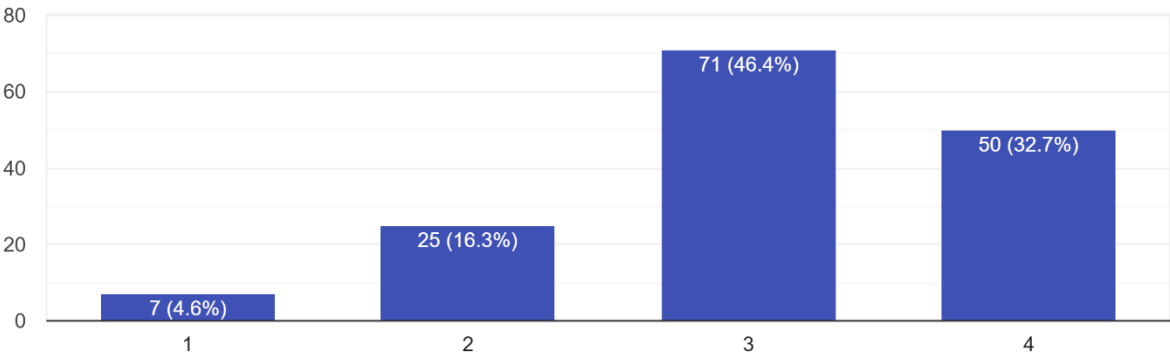

D. Conducting training sessions for new taxpayers and small business owners.

153 responses

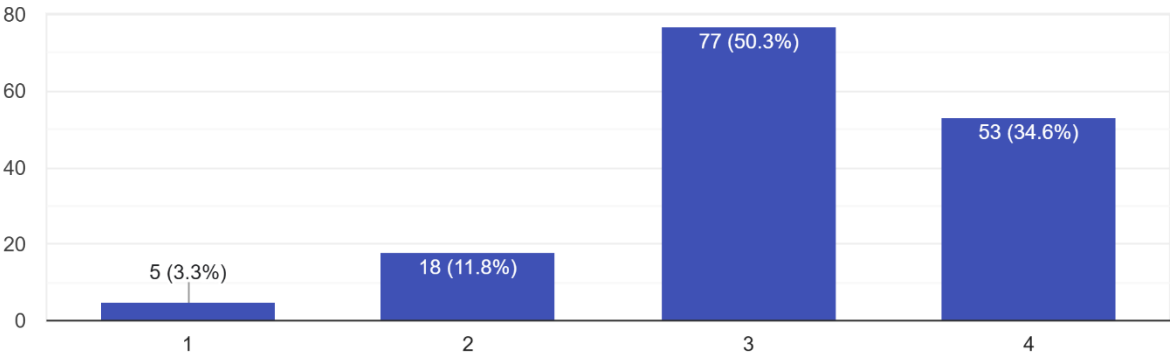

E. Delivering segmented messages for individuals, corporations, freelancers, etc.

153 responses

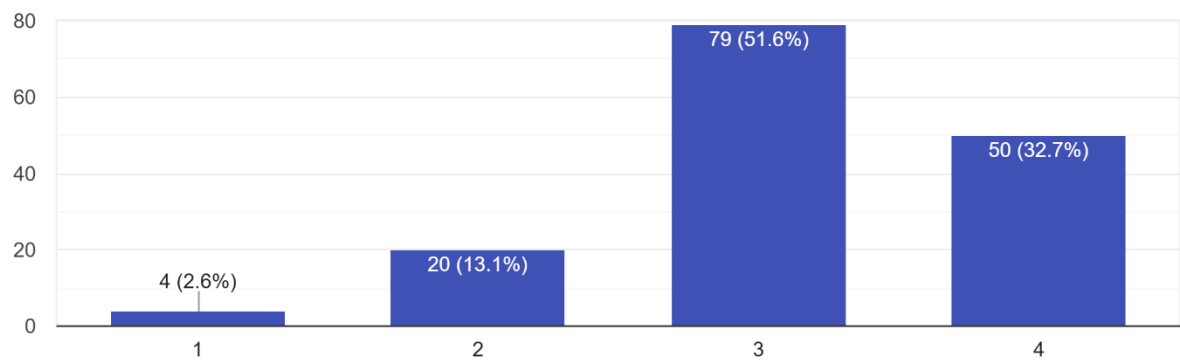

F. Having an infographics or reports showing how tax revenue funds healthcare, roads, schools, etc.

153 responses

G. Reducing confusion and build personal rapport by giving training to frontline staff to be customer-service oriented, not just compliance-focused.

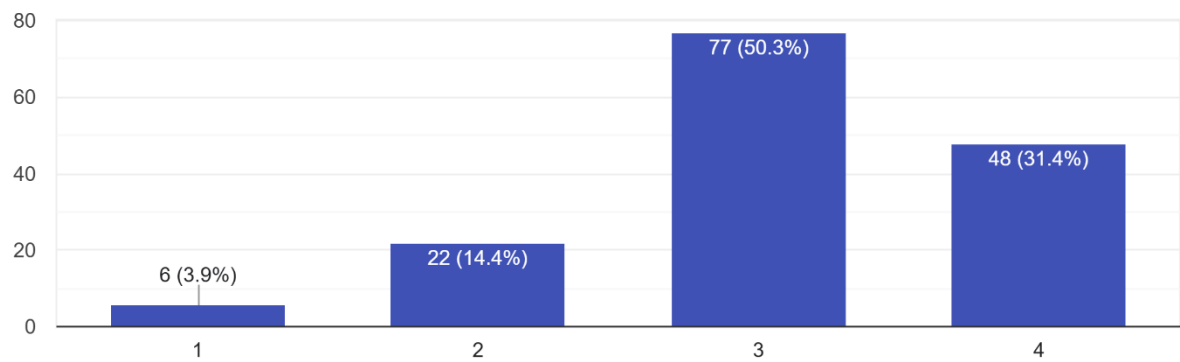

153 responses

5. Legal Action

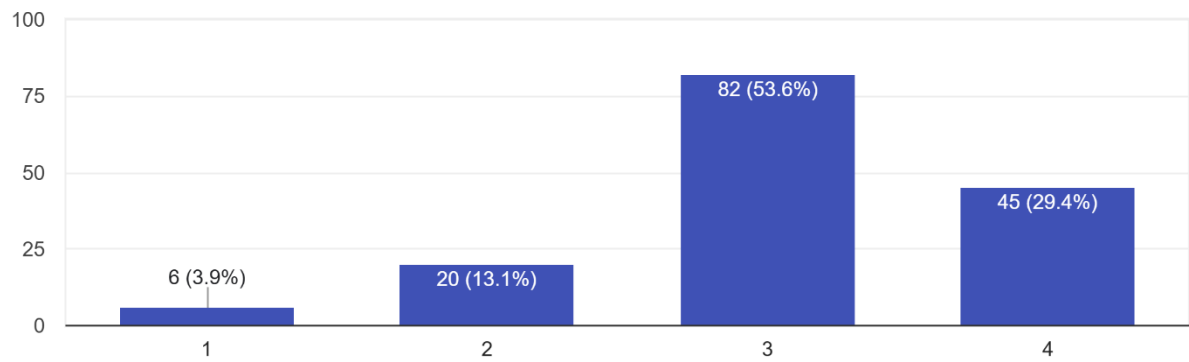

A. with a well-defined tax laws and enforcement mechanisms that support high collection

153 responses

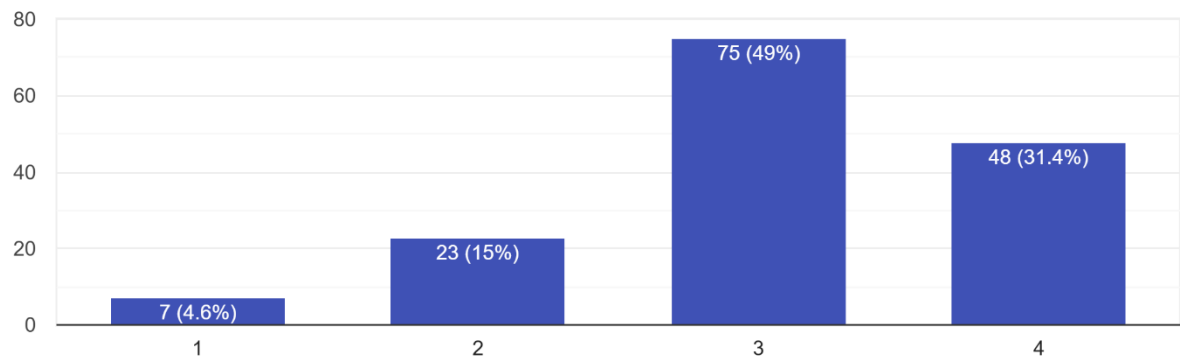

B. Giving demand Notices as First step in legal enforcement.

153 responses

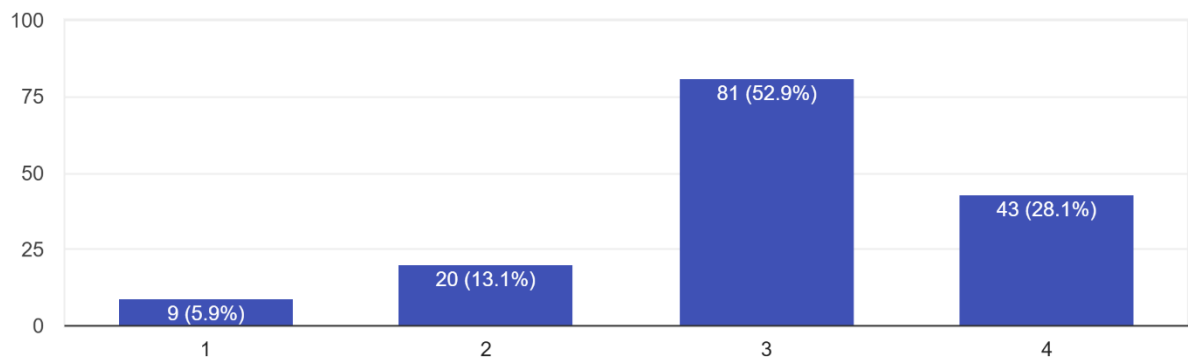

C. issuing official written notice to the taxpayer stating: amount owed, deadline for payment and consequences of non-payment

153 responses

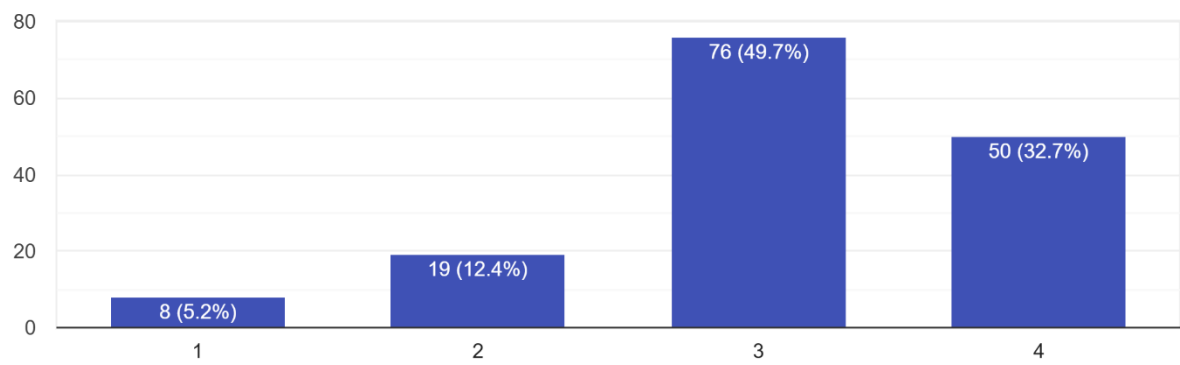

D. Using risk-based enforcement: target high-value or intentional offenders first.

153 responses

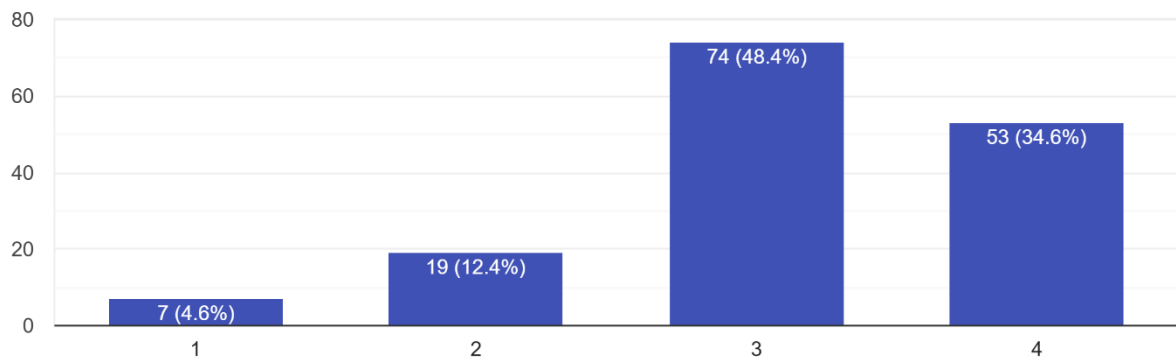

E. Maintaining transparency and consistency in applying legal measures.

153 responses

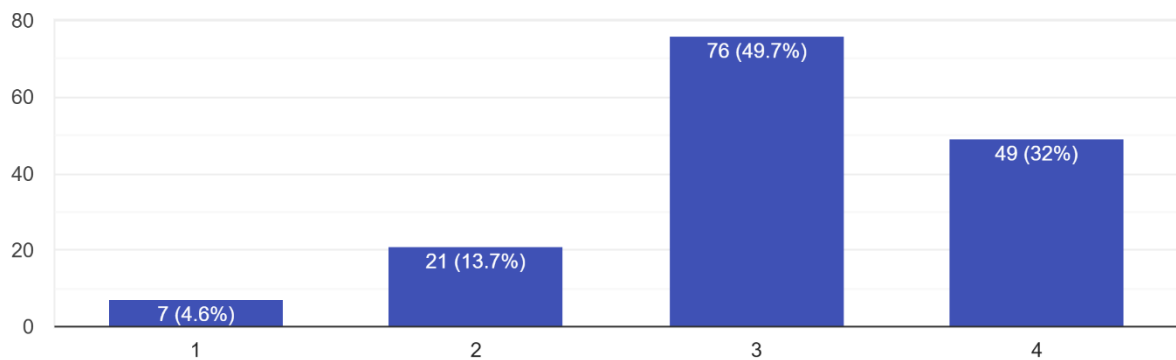

F. Combining legal action with communication, mediation, and payment plan options.

153 responses

G. Avoiding excessive force in minor cases—protect public perception and trust.

153 responses

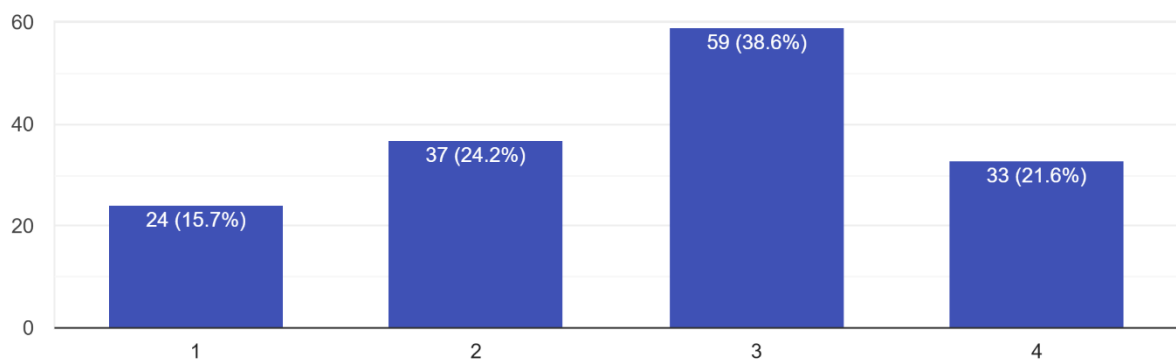

Part III. A. Challenges encountered by the respondents on the real property tax collection strategies in Caloocan City

Challenges Encountered

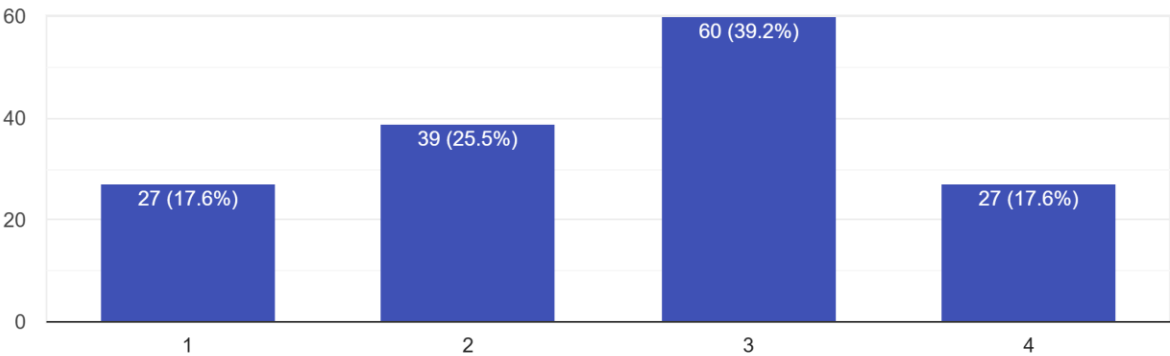

A. Outdated property records, like properties not accurately assessed or even registered or changes in ownership or improvements not reflected.

153 responses

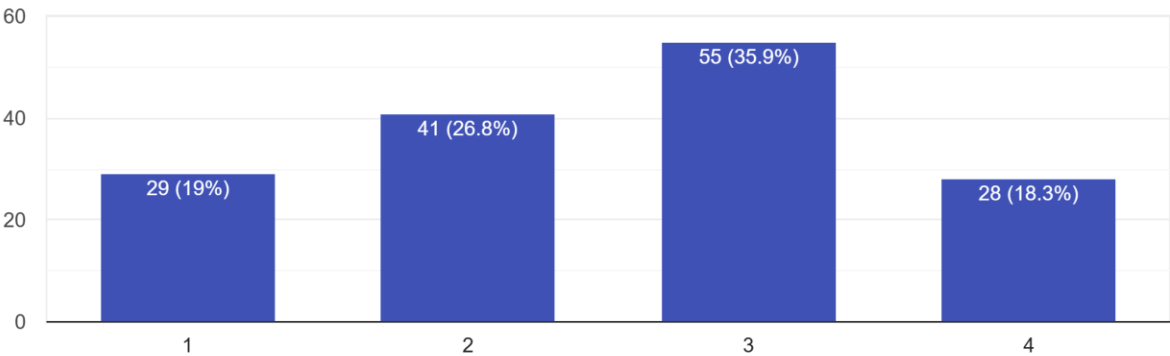

B. Low taxpayer compliance due to taxpayers are unaware of obligations or unwilling to pay as well as weak enforcement that encourages non-compliance.

153 responses

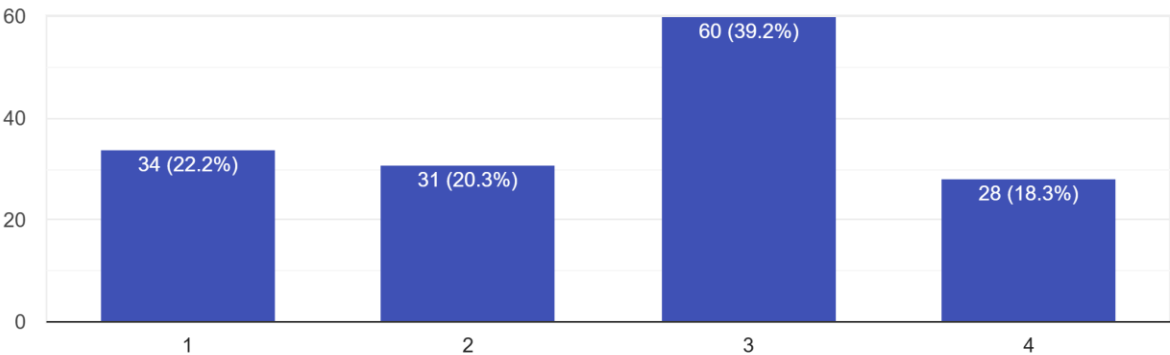

C. Inefficient billing and collection systems due to manual systems that prone to delays, errors, and loss of data and limited digital payment options or automation.

153 responses

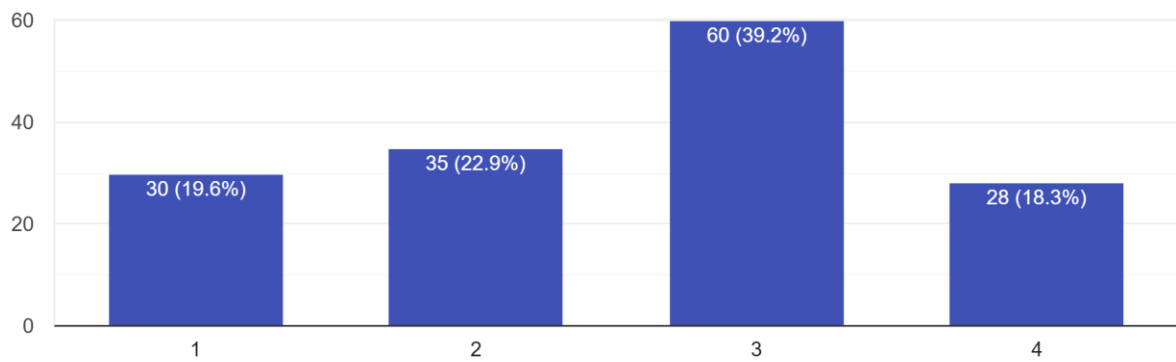

D. Weak enforcement mechanisms that lacking of political will to seize or auction delinquent property.

153 responses

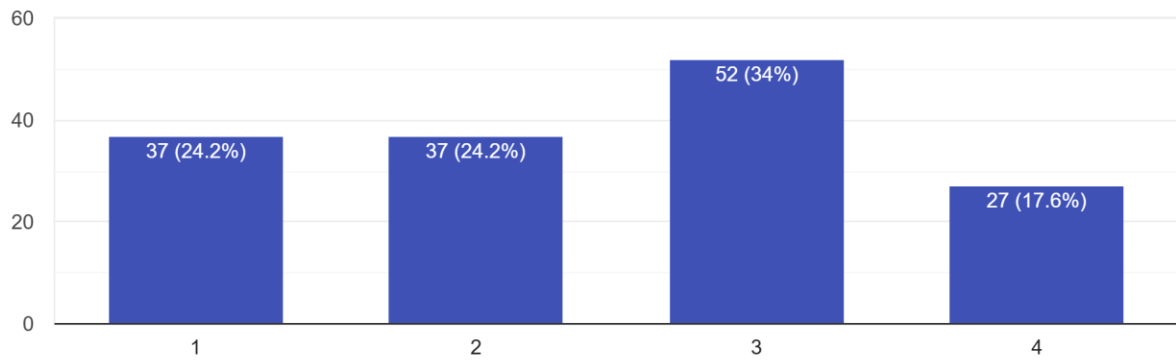

E. Fragmented or inaccurate valuation due to property values not updated regularly.

153 responses

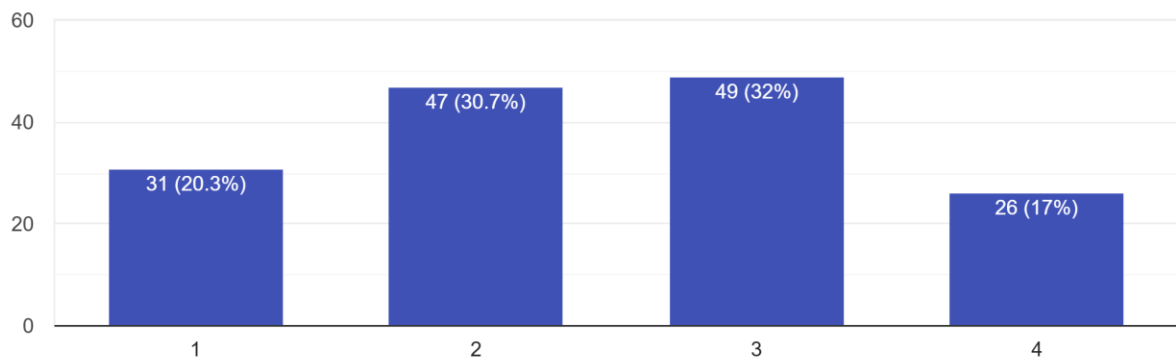

F. Corruption and lack of transparency like manipulated assessments, "under-the-table" deals. and lack of trust discourages payment.

153 responses

G.Public resistance and negative perception that viewed as unfair or burdensome, especially if services are lacking and disconnection between taxes paid and visible benefits.

153 responses

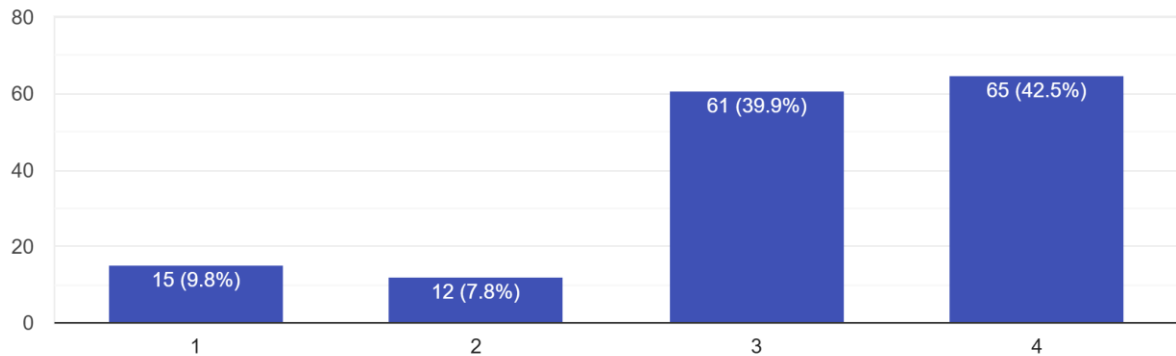

B. Solution offered to address encountered challenges on the real property tax collection strategies in Caloocan City

Solutions Offered

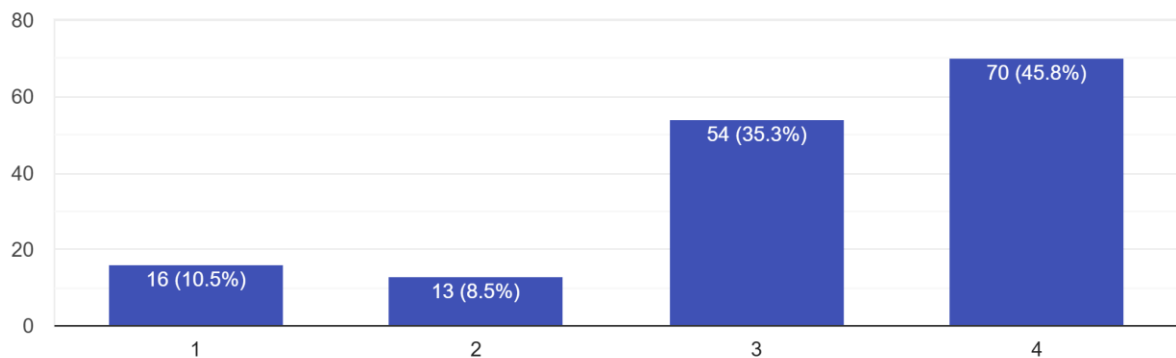

A. Digitize and update land and property records by conducting property revaluation every 3–5 years.

153 responses

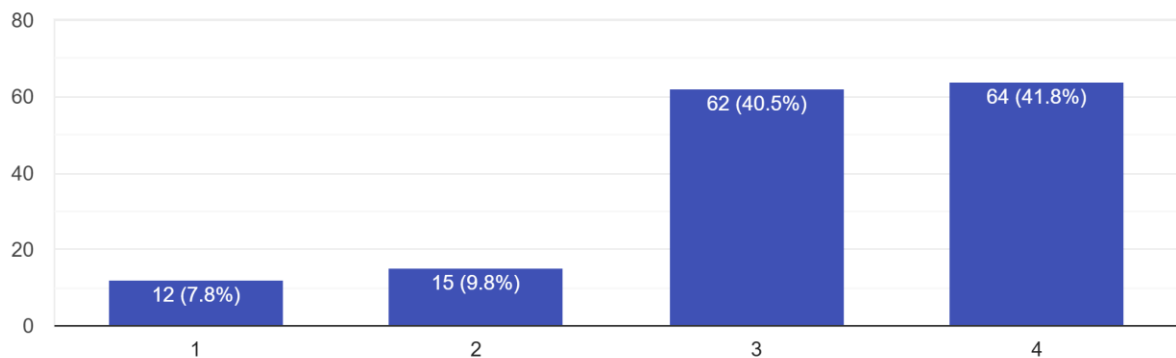

B. Improve billing and payment systems by introducing e-billing, SMS alerts, and online payment portals.

153 responses

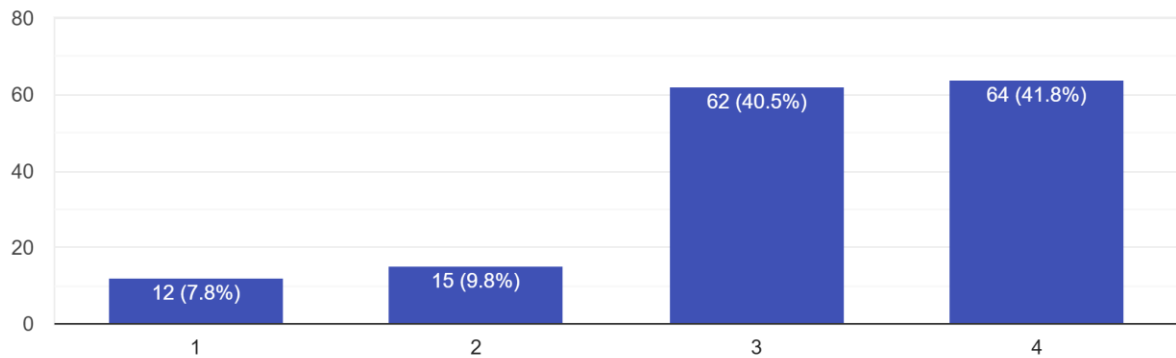

C. Strengthen Legal Framework and Enforcement Set clear timelines for delinquency and enforce penalties or auctions

153 responses

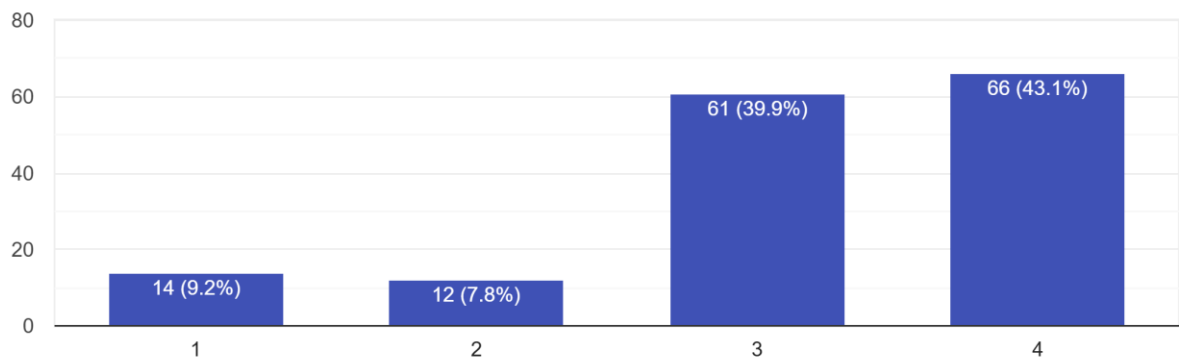

D. Offer incentives for prompt payment by providing early payment discounts or small rebates. and recognizing compliant property owners publicly.

153 responses

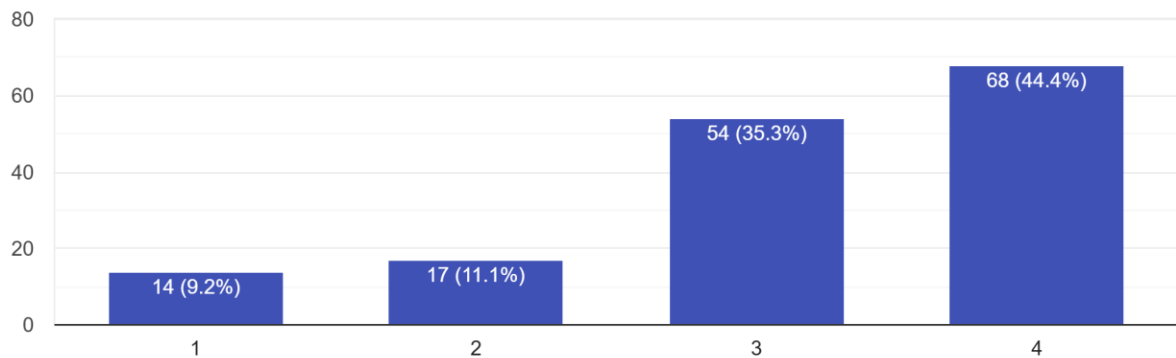

E. Engage in public awareness campaigns by educating citizens on: where their taxes go and why property tax matters

153 responses

F. Ensure Transparency and Accountability through publishing collection performance reports online.

153 responses

G. Capacity building and staff training by providing training local assessors and collectors on modern tools and fair valuation. Provide anti-corruption training and ethics reinforcement.

153 responses

